Since learning will commence through in-class critiques and case studies, attendance to the course is mandatory. Failure to show up for more than 5 classes will result in an F grade.

The class will be held online via zoom meetings, a procedure you are already all familiar with. However, be reminded that the classes will not be recorded. Therefore not showing up for the class will result in your missing out on that week's lesson. Should you be unable to attend due to internet connection problems there will of course be a makeup class.
