GENERAL INFORMATION

CIP 101 is a student-focused social responsibility course. It aims to introduce students to concepts such as participatory democracy, active citizenship and civil society and to mobilize them through these concepts with the awareness they will gain on social issues through the course.

- Weekly topics and materials will be on Sucourse.
- Each student will be assigned to a project group and each group will have fieldwork for 3 weeks per semester.
- First two lectures will be held in SUNUM Fuaye.
- Each group will have a supervisor.
- Information about the classrooms for group discussion meetings will be e-mailed by your supervisor.
- Sona system: If you participate in studies this semester, you will get a bonus equivalent to a weekly meeting within the scope of CIP 101 course. To get a bonus each student needs to get 5 research points.

Grade to pass: 70%

- Students who successfully complete the CIP 101 will be graded with "S" (Successful), and students who cannot complete the course will be graded with "U" (Unsuccessful).
- Students who have a total grade under 10%, will be graded with "NA" (NotAttending).
